

Band Booster Meeting
May 10, 2016

Meeting called to order at 6:30 p.m. due to Jazz Concert at 7:00 p.m. Members in attendance were: Jennifer and Mark Smith, Mike Nichols, Lori Weber, Rose Lambi, Ronn Faintich, Dianne Faintich, Sharon Freshwater, Cindy Staten, Marilyn Gafke, Angela Calvillo, Rosemary Winner-Johnson, Kim and Dan Pieper, Susan Pyatt, Chris Meyer, Brad Jones, Anne Fegan, Maggie Durant and Reneta Roe.

Susan Pyatt approved the April minutes as submitted. Sharon Freshwater seconded. April minutes were approved.

Mike Nichols reported that student accounts had earned $226.40 through Scrip. The general band account earned $57.43.

Anne Fegan gave the treasurer's report. Most income came from student fee payments and trivia night. Large expenses included payment to Andoro's for fundraiser, middle school cheesecake fundraiser payment, winter guard and music/drill. Anne will bill student accounts for Music for All summer symposium as soon as she receives the names of students attending.

Trivia Night went very well. The band made about $4000. Special thanks to the Warrens, Fegans, Whites, Smiths, and Brad Jones for the time and effort they put in making trivia night a success. Thank you to Mr. Kappler and the Jazz band for playing at trivia night. And thank you to all the band families that came out and supported trivia night.

Nominations were held for board positions. Sharon Freshwater nominated Cindy Staten for vice-president. No other nominations were made. The booster board for the 2016-17 year will be: Jennifer Smith, president; Cindy Staten, vice-president; Anne Fegan, treasurer; and Lori Weber, secretary.

Mr. Cunningham announced that pending board approval, Jacob England would be the new assistant band director.

Meeting was adjourned at 6:48 p.m.

Next meeting will be June 14, 7:00 p.m., in the Holt band room.
