The Wentzville Holt Indian Band has a thirty-nine year tradition of being a quality, award-winning Band Program. For the 2012-2013 year, it has grown to 210+ students who will dedicate themselves to the disciplines of practice and teamwork. The experience and mentoring they receive in return is invaluable. Wentzville Band Boosters, a non-profit support organization, works to maintain and supplement the level of activity and excellence the band program offers. Some Booster expenditures include entry fees for marching competitions, truck rentals to haul equipment to festivals, camps for the Color Guard and Percussion sections, instrument purchase and repairs, and uniform cleaning. The band is dependent on the volunteer efforts of parents, students, patrons and sponsors such as you.

Maintaining a superior high school music program such as the Wentzville Holt Indian Band requires commitment from students, educators, parents, and boosters. It also requires the financial support of generous sponsors. Therefore, we ask for the assistance of local businesses, and are pleased to offer a sponsorship program that provides benefits and loyalties to those businesses in return.
